

Stamshaw Infant School

Further quotes about Stamshaw Infant School from Ofsted 2018.

"Pupils who have special educational needs and/or disabilities receive bespoke support .All children are clearly valued and nurtured." (Ofsted November 2018)

"Pupils love school life – they behave well, work hard and are eager to learn" (Ofsted November 2018)

"Parents are overwhelmingly supportive of the school - The school is an asset to the local area." (Ofsted November 2018)

"The school's many strengths include having a caring and supportive learning environment and having effective partnerships with parents. Parents are welcomed wholeheartedly and encouraged to be part of their child's learning." (Ofsted November 2018)

"There is a high level of expertise on the staff team with pupils making good progress. Leaders are highly ambitious for every pupil in the school". (Ofsted November 2018)

